

Pappas Communications "donation" of air time is a violation of the public trust.

One sided partisan reporting in an election season is an abuse of public airwaves.

Pappas' partisan use of the public airwaves makes a mockery of the FCC and the public trust. Their license and ability to make money from the public airwaves should be revoked.

Thank you.